Time Frame

Rationale for Recommendation.

Infosys is showing early signs of a pullback bounce near the 1,250–1,260 demand zone, with recent candles forming higher lows on the 5 Min. Price is attempting to reclaim the 20 EMA, indicating short-term momentum shift after a prolonged downtrend. If it sustains above 1,260–1,270, a quick move toward 1,300–1,320 is possible. A call option of 1260 can be considered at 17.50 with stoploss at 8.40 (premium). Avoid holding if it goes below this level.
