Rationale for Recommendation.

Indo Farm Equipment is showing a constructive bullish setup as the stock is trading around ₹164-166 and consolidating just below the ₹166–168 resistance zone, indicating accumulation after a recent upmove. The price has been forming a tight consolidation range with improving momentum, and a sustained breakout above ₹166-168 could lead to an upside towards ₹190–200+. The overall outlook remains positive, with ₹141 acting as the key support level for the bullish view.
