Rationale for Recommendation.

Rolex Rings has delivered a strong breakout above the ₹145 resistance level, supported by a sharp increase in trading volumes, indicating renewed buying momentum. The stock has moved out of its recent consolidation phase and is showing signs of trend continuation, with price action remaining firmly above the breakout zone. A sustained move above ₹154 could accelerate the rally towards ₹173, while ₹145 should now act as an important support and stop-loss level.
