Rationale for Recommendation.

VA Tech Wabag has witnessed a strong rebound after successfully holding above the 20-day EMA and the key support zone near ₹1,995–2,040. The stock has resumed its upward momentum with improving volumes, indicating fresh buying interest after a healthy pullback. As long as it sustains above the ₹1993 support, the bullish trend is likely to continue, with an upside potential towards ₹2,262–2,325 in the near term. Hence, traders can consider accumulating the stock on dips while maintaining a stop loss below ₹1,993.
